OCEAN TREASURE
SEAFOOD RESTAURANT

The sketch map of the People's Republic of China

Established in 1999

Ocean Treasure Restaurant has continued to offer authentic oriental food to its loyal customers.

Our team of chefs are dedicated, skilled and carefully hand selected for their culinary qualification, expertise and creativity. Matched by our extravagent dinning hall and elegant decor, come and visit us for an enjoyable meal where we boast our specially designed banquets.

Ocean Treasure is equipped to provide a real culinary experience like no other. A real night to enjoy and to remember.

On the right hand side is a sketch map of China with the location of the provinces. Due to the geographic difference, each province has developed their unique dishes. The spirit of the dishes are the sauce. The followings are some of the most loved sauces in the UK:

Kin-Do Sauce - Chinese malt vinegar, sugar, pineapple, ketchup, pickle onions, worcestershire sauce and mango pulp.

Plum Sauce - Has a unique fruity flavour made with salted plums, rice vinegar and corn starch.

Sichuan Sauce - A hot and spicy sauce summarised from its origin Sichuan, nick named "The furnace of China". A brownish red sauce made with chilli garlic sauce, sweet and sour sauce and different types of seasoning.

Satay Sauce - Originated from Malaysia but also popular in Hainan, the furthest southern province of China. Red chilli crushed with peanut butter, coconut milk and different types of tropical spices makes this sauce rich, creamy and exotic.

Kung Po Sauce - This popular chilli garlic sauce and Hoi-sin sauce have been adapted and westernised to give a hint of spice, a sweet chilli taste served with stir fried vegetables and nuts.

Lemon Sauce - A delicious piquant sauce made with fresh lemon juice, sugar and vinegar. Its lemon zest definitely wakes all the taste buds, goes well with all deep fried dishes.

Sweet and Sour Sauce - It is the most popular sauce in Southern China, made from a classic recipe with ingredients like ketchup, sugar and vinegar.

Blackbean Sauce - Made from naturally fermented blackbean crushed with its inseparable "partner" garlic and oyster sauce, giving out an irresistible aroma to all ingredients used.

Cantonese Sauce - A sweet & sour base with added ingredients like ketchup, HP brown sauce, worcestershire sauce, fresh tomato and sugar, gives an exotic flavour. A sauce developed in Hong Kong gaining its popularity in many other countries.

XO Sauce - A savoury spicy sauce made with expensive ingredient such as sundried scallops, dried shrimps, red onions, garlic, bird's eye chilli and Chinese golden ham.
